

Once you're in it should look like this. The documents in the middle are there because I have made them already for projects.

After you're in drive you can create a document by clicking the create button then clicking document to make a document or PowerPoint to make a PowerPoint.

